

LUNCH AND LEARN SERIES

March 7th at 12:00pm

Join us for a Luncheon and hear from
Author Deirdre Sinnott

Deirdre Sinnott is the author of the novel “The Third Mrs. Galway.” She was one of the primary researchers for the 2020 study of Abolition and the Underground in Oneida County funded by the National Park Service through the auspices of Ft. Stanwix National Monument in cooperation with the Organization of American Historians. She has spoken extensively on the history of Utica and the Abolition movement. Her upcoming novel is “The Loyalist’s Wife.” The release date to be announced.

FREE EVENT

Call 315-724-2430 to reserve your space.